

WHY HIRE PRIYA?

I PRACTICE WHAT I PREACH

Built on decades of real-world success

My ideas are not based on opinions or theories; everything I present comes from extensive research and hands-on experience, always adjusting with the changing times to keep my audience updated with only the latest suggestions. I have a minimalist approach in my thought journey, and show how my accomplishments will leave participants with confidence that if I can do it, they can, too.

I KNOW IT PRACTICALLY AND TECHNICALLY

Passionate to support your professional goals

I've consulted and trained clients from solo entrepreneurs to national consulting firms.

I've presented to small business associations and multinational corporate executives. In every scenario, my diverse experience and deep knowledge amazes clients, having a firm grasp of their industry through in-depth research, providing unique insights, and delivering results with facts.

I TAILOR MY TALK

Each presentation is crafted for your audience

I take time to understand your audience and industry trends, opportunities, and current pain points, and customise my presentation accordingly. I am a communicator, making sure to provide the exact outcome you're looking for in every step leading of the way leading up to the event. Meeting planners often comment how pleasing it is to work with me as a speaker for willing to go the extra mile.

I VIGOROUSLY ADAPT

My desire to learn keeps me progressive

The world is in a constant fast pace, and elements lose relevancy with time. As a self-made and lifelong learner, I constantly evolve with technology and knowledge, creating new strategies and researching to bring fresh ideas to the table for you.
